COVER IMAGE:

Modified version of the Antikamnia Calendar 1901 (Oct-Dec.). Chromo-lithograph from watercolor by Dr. Louis Crusius (1862-1898). Dr. Crusius, creator of many clever and humorous medical images, was a graduate of the St. Louis College of Pharmacy in 1882 and the St. Louis College of Physicians and Surgeons in 1890, and on the faculty in histology at the Marion Sims Medical College, a precursor to the St. Louis University Medical Department. Antikamnia ("Opposed to Pain") Chemical Company of St. Louis, Missouri produced several calendars (1897-1901) with art by Dr. Crusius, promoting their patent medicines to physicians. Courtesy of the Institute of the History of Medicine, Johns Hopkins University
